INTRODUCTION

Negeri Sembilan

Land of Ancient Traditions

Negeri Sembilan is situated in the west of Peninsular Malaysia. It is about 50km south of Kuala Lumpur and spreads over an area of 6,645sq km. It's name literally means nine states as the state once consisted of nine districts.

The state is known for its Minangkabau culture and Adat Perpatih, an age-old matrilineal social system. Negeri Sembilan is also synonymous with the unique upswept roof designs, a typical feature of Minangkabau architecture.

This state has several historical and cultural landmarks that are easily accessible from its capital, Seremban.

Discover the beauty of Negeri Sembilan, the home of ancient traditions!

The state has wide assemblage of culinary delights. The dishes are characteristically hot and spicy, often enhanced by the small but potent 'cilipadi' (extra hot chilli). The most popular method of cooking is 'masak lomak cili api' where the condiments are simmered in coconut milk for a mouth-watering aroma.

There are also a variety of delicious Chinese, Malay and Indian cuisine for everyone. So, travellers, get ready to explore Negeri Sembilan and enjoy a gastronomic adventure like no other!

POPULAR DISHES

MASAK LEMAK LADO API

Masak lemak lado api is the signature dish of Negeri Sembilan. The combination of onions, lemongrass, turmeric and most importantly lado api (small extra hot chillies) simmered in coconut milk, produce the wonderful aroma of a totally mouth-watering dish. Find yourself sweating while savoring this hot and spicy delicacy. It can be prepared with fish, meat, prawn or chicken and is delicious when eaten with rice.

APAM JOHOL

Kuih apam daun rambai or apam johol is another local delicacy. When baked to perfection, kuih apam johol will be soft, fragrant and not too sweet. It should be lightly brown in colour with a nice cracked top. It is delicious eaten with savory dishes such as sambal ikan bilis, rendang and meat gravy.

SAMBAL TEMPOYAK DAUN KAYU

This dish is a combination of various leaves cooked in a thick rich gravy. The original recipe would have no less than 44 different kind of leaves and herbaceous plants. The thinly sliced leaves mixed with seasoning of anchovies and petai, make a perfect dish. It is usually served with hot rice and grilled fish.

RENDANG PUCUK UBI

Rendang pucuk ubi is a special traditional cuisine and a favourite food to multi-society in Malaysia. Suitable served with rice, lemak, ketupat & bread. Best to serve hot with; Glutinous rice cooked in bamboo. Rice cooked in coconut leaves or White Rice

SATAY TULANG JELEBU

This is another variety of the famous Malaysian satay. Marinated with traditional homemade spices, the satay is charcoal-grilled to ensure its tenderness. It is served with a peanut sauce,

AIR JANDO PULANG

Cool and refreshing! The exquisite richness of the pulp and brown sugar to taste, added with some colouring to Negeri Sembilan, have an ice-cool exotic drink - just the thing to quench your thirst on a hot sunny day.

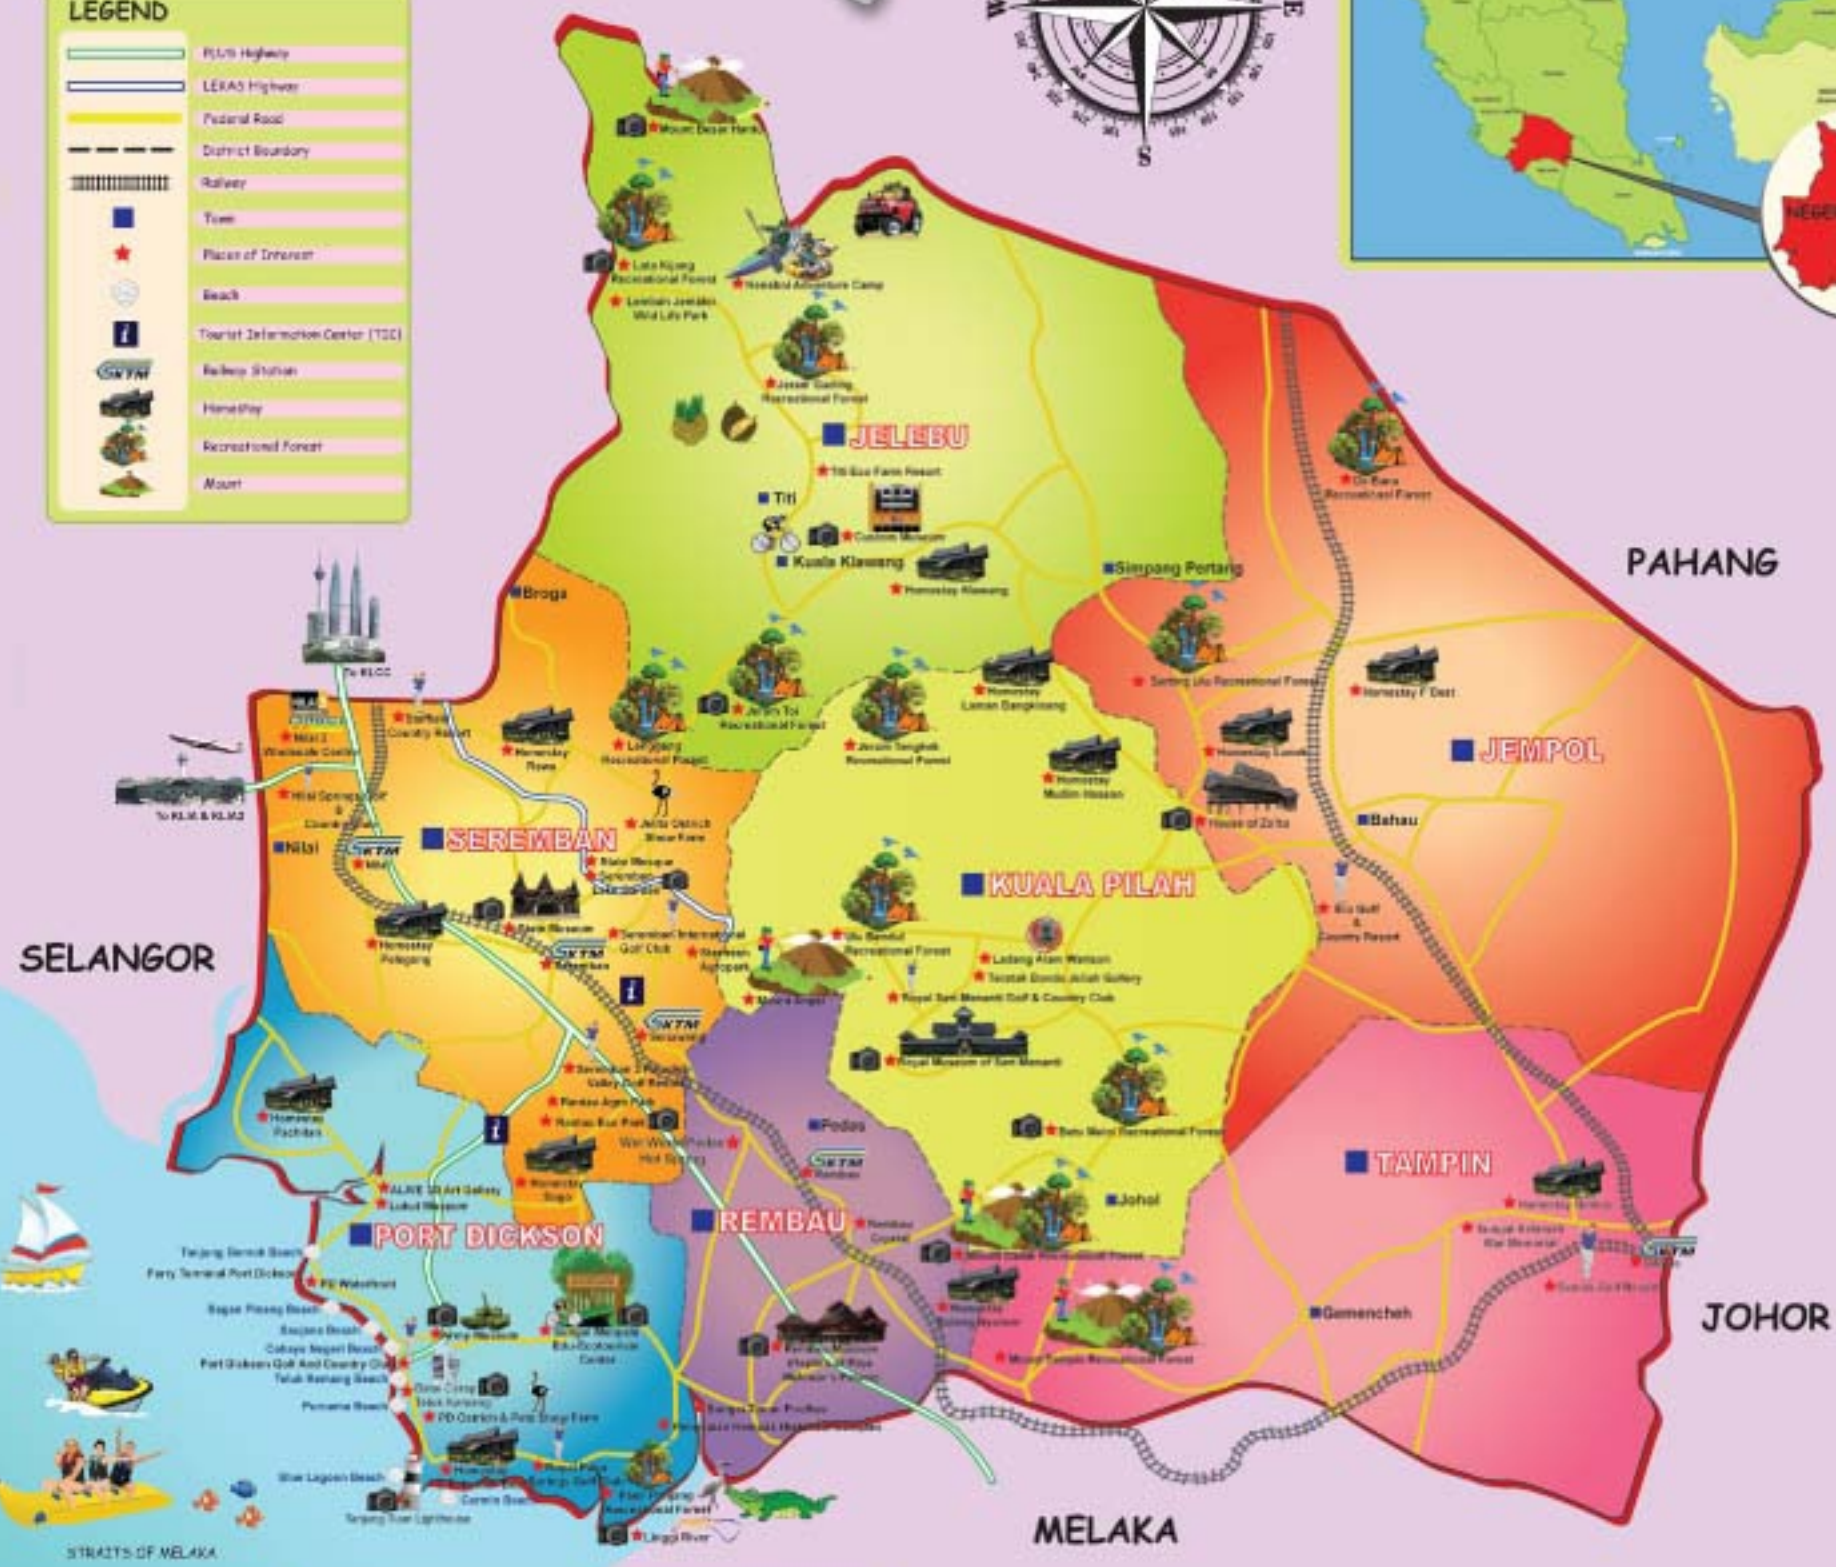

(usually red), makes this drink unique. Add in some ice cubes and you

TRADITIONAL 'KUIH'

WAJIK KESIRAT

A traditional Malay delicacy, wajik kesirat is a delightful treat of steamed glutinous rice with dark brown sugar and coconut milk. It is the ideal dessert to conclude your dinner on a sweet note.

KUIH GOYANG

A crunchy brown cookie, kuih goyang is also called kuih ros. In either case, the name is derived from the rose-shape brass mould used to shape the cookie. It is made of flour, rice flour, coconut milk, sugar and eggs.

KUIH SERABAI

A very traditional cookie. The thick and sweet sauce compensates for the plain serabai made from rice flour. Cooked in the manner of making pancakes.

TART BANGKAHULU

Tart Bangkahulu is a traditional cake made from flour, sugar, eggs and oil. It is popular during festive season.

MAKAN BERSELO

The 'Makan Berselo' package is a new tourist package offered for visitor to experience the traditional culture of the people in Negeri Sembilan. This package offered a brand new experience to tourist who wanted to have a taste of Negeri Sembilan traditional dishes while sitting cross-legged on the floor in a traditional dining environment. Among the special dishes offered are tempoyak-based dishes, 'masak lomak lado api, daging salai pucuk ubi' and 'ikan sembilang goreng berlado'. The experience of eating while sitting cross-legged on the floor is an experience that you will never forget!
